With the potential to extend (subject to town planning permissions), the possibilities for transforming this space are truly exciting. If you've been dreaming of a home with generous outdoor space, this is one you won't want to miss. There's also a front yard of approximately 8m² and a garden shed, offering practical outdoor storage. Convenience is key here, with parking located directly outside your front door, ensuring easy access at all times. The open-plan galley kitchen is fully equipped with modern appliances and designer finishes, flowing seamlessly into a dedicated laundry room that also leads out to the front yard.
