Charming 1900s Family Home in Upper Town with Stunning Bay ViewsIntroducing this one-of-a-kind family home in the sought-after Upper Town area, steeped in character and charm. Built in the early 1900s and thoughtfully created by merging two properties, this unique residence spans three floors, offering approximately 220m² of internal living space and 14m² split between two delightful patios. Ground Floor: The entry level boasts a welcoming layout, featuring a spacious kitchen with a convenient pantry/laundry room, a dining area, an updated shower room and a charming reception room that opens onto one of the patios. Additionally, there is a versatile storeroom on this level, perfect for extra storage or potential repurposing.First Floor: On the first floor, you'll find a utility room, a quiet study, a family bathroom, and two generously sized double bedrooms, each offering breathtaking views of the bay. This floor also provides access to the second patio, ideal for outdoor relaxation.Top Floor: The uppermost level includes three more well-proportioned double bedrooms, a separate WC, and another study room that could easily be converted into a sixth bedroom or a private office space.Historical Features and Potential: Bursting with original features, including soaring high ceilings, 150-year-old wooden floorboards, and charming wood paneling, this property exudes timeless appeal. While it is ready to be transformed, a touch of creativity and DIY skills could modernize the space while preserving its historic character.With its versatile layout, incredible views, and rich history, this home offers endless potential for a...
