Embrace the authentic Spanish lifestyle in this character-filled village home. Perfectly positioned in Pueblo Nuevo, this residence offers the best of both worlds: the vibrant soul of a traditional village—where local tapas bars, bakeries, and shops are just a short stroll away—and the world-class amenities of Sotogrande right on your doorstep. This isn't a cold, modern box; it is a warm, established home built for comfort, community, and Mediterranean light. A Home Built for Living Spanning three levels on an elevated plot, the layout flows naturally from social spaces to private retreats: - The Welcome: A grand, double-height entrance hall that immediately impresses. - Social Spaces: A cozy lounge with a feature fireplace for winter evenings, plus a spacious L-shaped dining area for hosting friends. - * The Heart: A bright, east-facing kitchen designed to catch the morning sun. - Versatility: A ground-floor study (Bedroom 4) offers the perfect space for a home office or guest room. Elevated Serenity - The upper mezzanine leads to the sleeping quarters, where the traditional architecture truly shines: Master Suite: Wake up to shimmering sea views from your Juliet balcony, complete with a walk-in dressing room and en-suite. The Terrace: Two guest bedrooms open onto a massive covered terrace—your private sanctuary for afternoon siestas or alfresco dining. Modern Comforts in a Classic Setting While the soul of the house is traditional, the "bones" are modern. Enjoy the peace of mind that comes with solar energy and a full ducted AC system, ensuring the home remains energy-efficient and comfortable year-round. ### Key Features & Highlights Feature Description ?
